ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING HAS FATAL ENDING

Sam McLaughlin, Shot by Jerry O'Connell, Died at the Mullanphy Hospital.

HELD PENDING THE INQUEST.

McLaughlin's Ante Mortem Statement Disclaims Any Criminal Intention on the Part of O'Connell.

As the result of an accidental shooting Sam McLaughlin, 22 years old, of No. 2515 Mullamphy street, died at the Mullamphy Hospital ten minutes before 6 o'clock yesterday morning.

Jerry O'Connell, who did the shooting, was arrested by patrolmen at his home shortly arrested by patrolmen at his home shortly after McLaughlin's death and locked up at the Ninth District Police Station, Jefferson avenue and Dayton street, where he will be held pending the result of the Coroner's inquest at 16 o'clock this morning.

While McLaughlin's condition was considered very serious for the last week, the attending physicians, relying on his powerful constitution, held out hopes of his recovery.

attending physicians, relying on his powerful constitution, held out hopes of his recovery.

Shortly after the shooting McLaughlin, in an antemortem statement, exonerated O'Connell from all crimital responsibility in the affair. McLaughlin and O'Connell were the best of friends and all eyewitnesses say that the shooting of McLaughlin was purely accidental.

As detalled by several eye-witnesses, the shooting occurred in Hogan's saloon, at Jefferson avenue and Howard street, about 9 o'clock on the night of February 5. McLaughlin, who was a silent partner in the saloon, was behind the bar when O'Connell began to clean his revolver. He had broken it and extracted all the shells, as he thought, and after putting it in working grier pointed it at McLaughlin and began snapping it. McLaughlin did not think the weapon was loaded and made no attempt to get out of range. A loaded shell remained in one of the chambers and this exploded. The bullet struck McLaughlin, who was a very powerful man, did not think seriously of the wound, and for nearly an hour would not allow his friends to summon medical aid. Becoming weak from the loss of blood, however, he put on his coat and walked to the office of Doctor Wells at No. 256 Cass avenue, Doctor Wells was not at home, and the wounded man walked to the office of Doctor Soraghan at Jefferson and Cass avenue, he when the stream of the months of the m FOR SUPREMACY PREDICTED. "Germany and the Monroe Doctrine," in which he says it is clearly in line with Germany's interest and policy to join with the United States in maintaining the doctrine, and expresses the hope that the United States will extend its authority over all Latin-America.

"This," he says, "may be the greatest struggle of the Twentieth Century. It will be a contest of the Germanic race against Latindom.
"Germany stated the struggle against it be a contest of the Germanic race against Latindom.

"Germany started the struggle against it in 1870 and America continued it in 1898.

"It is the inevitable strife of the Germanic against Latin races which must continue until the Germanic race is supreme. In this struggle no German can be in doubt as to where his sympathies and active aid should go."

Herr von Wildenbruch urges Germany to make an explicit and positive declaration in favor of the Mouroe Doctrine, so that all the world may know where she stands, and thus remove any doubt whatever that Germany is with the United States, and that Germany has absolutely no occasion to be hostile to the Monroe Doctrine, and on every occasion supports it. where his wound was temporarily dressed and he was removed to the Mulianphy Hospital.

At the hospital, Doctors Soraghan and Carson, owing to the condition of the wound, deemed it unsafe to attempt to extract the bullet.

After the shooting O'Connell gave himself up, but was released at the request of McLaughlin.

McLaughlin. although only 22 years o.d. was a powerfully built man, weighing about 20 pounds. For several seasons he played association football, and was considered by good judges the hardest-kicking full back ever seen in St. Louis. On more than one occasion McLaughlin has cleared the ball from ful back into the mouth of his opponents' goal.

He lived in St. Louis for thirteen years, coming here with his widowed mother from Kirkwood, Mo. Of an amiable disposition, he made many friends and was one of the most popular football players that ever played in the city.

The funeral will take place from his home Thursday morning at $20 o'clock to Calvary Cemetery. Father J. J. Harty, pastor of St. Leo's Church, assisted by the Reverend Father J. J. O'Brien, pastor of St. Margaret's Church, will conduct the services.

William Kane, John Doyle, J. Doyle and Frank Hanley will act as pallbearers. Besides his mother, Mrs. E. F. McLaughlin, he leaves two grown eisters—Lizzle and Nelle McLaughlin—and two grown brothers—John and Joseph McLaughlin.

Omega Oil

For the Muscles

If you want to have good, strong muscles, you must do what the successful pugilists and athletes do. A fine muscular development—powerful arms and legs, broad shoulders, sinewy back and well-developed chest-rarely comes of itself. It is a matter of self-development. Plenty of exercise, and regular rub-downs with Omega Oil, will put almost any man in the possession of a fine physique.

Jeffries, Fitzsimmons, Ruhlin, Sharkey, Corbett, McCoy, Kid Carter, Young Corbett, McGovern, and every other pugilist that amounts to anything, all use Omega Oil as a rub-down.

If you want to know what bicyclists say about Omega Oil, ask Frank Kramer, Major Taylor, Jimmy Michael, Harry Elkes, or Bobby Walthour.

Ask any famous baseball player, any famous jockey, any successful football player, any college athlete, what his favorite rub-down is, and he will tell you Omega Oil.

These are good, honest, straightforward facts, without any strings to them. Nobody was ever paid a cent for indorsing Omega Oil. It does its own work so well that an athlete has to use it, or fall back in the procession.

Take any sort of exercise you please, but be sure to use Omega Oil as a rubdown afterwards. It freshens the muscles, strengthens them, removes stiffness and soreness, and gives a man great endurance, so he can run or walk or jump or ride or fight, if need be, without getting tired easily.

There is nothing like Omega Oil for strengthening the back, shoulders and limbs. It is the best of all rub-downs. FRANK L. KRAMER, National Champion Sprinter of America.

Omega Oil is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for.

The Marshai picked up a poker and walked in the cage. The hobo squared himself for a fight. The Marshai dropped his poker, toos him by the coat collar and dragged him to the street. The tramp struggred like a good fellow, but wasn't strong enough. When he got up from the gutter he yelled: "Say, you've just got to put me in now." "You move on." said Woods.
"No. I don't; you've got to lock me up for resisting an officer. If you don't do it I will go to the City Attorney and have you before the Council for violatin' your duty." The fellow refused to move and struggled hard to get back in the jail. The thermometer was down to zero and there was 6 inches of snow on the ground. The Marshal went back into the calaboose and attached the hose to the hydrant. The numps at the river were in good working creder.
